

UTSA Master's of Public Administration Adjunct Lecturers

The Department of Public Administration at the University of Texas at San Antonio (UTSA) occasionally has the need to hire part-time adjunct lecturers to teach in its Master's of Public Administration (MPA) program. The MPA program is NASPAA accredited with around 125 graduate students. For more information on the MPA program and its courses please go to the following website: <http://www.utsa.edu/gcat/chapter7/copp/paddept.cfm#mapad>

The qualifications to be considered as an adjunct are a strong record of professional experience in the public or non-profit sector and a master's degree in public administration or related field of study. Teaching experience is also desirable. Adjuncts are paid per course taught.

If interested, please email your resume and cover letter explaining what course(s) you would like to teach to the Chair of the Department Dr. Christopher Reddick (chris.reddick@utsa.edu).

UTSA is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity employer. Women, minorities, veterans, and individuals with disabilities are encouraged to apply.
